Bulls Look to Turn the Corner in 2017

In 2016, the University at Buffalo football team struggled through some growing pains as the Bulls had 42 new players on the roster. Now with a more experienced group, third-year head coach Lance Leipold hopes the program can turn the corner this season and compete for a Mid-American Conference title.

Defense will be the more experienced of the two sides of the ball with eight starters returning. While the Bulls return a lot of experience on the defensive unit, they will need to replace a number of contributors on the defensive line. Four major contributors on the defensive line, including two starters, graduated following the 2016 season.

The Bulls only return six starters on offense. However, one of those starters in quarterback Tyree Jackson, who showed a lot of promise as a redshirt-freshman last season. The Bulls will need to replace All-MAC running back Jordan Johnson, All-MAC tight end Mason Schreck and starting wide receivers Marcus McGill and Malcolm Robinson. UB does return four of its five starters on the offense line.

Here is a position-by-position breakdown of returning Bulls entering fall camp.

QUARTERBACK

Jackson made a splash at quarterback last season as a redshirt-freshman. He came off the bench in the opener and remained the starter until an injury forced him to miss the final two games of the season. The 6-7 versatile signal-caller is a threat to pass or run and showed flashes of doing both very well. He threw for 1,772 yards and nine touchdowns and rushed for 472 yards and four more scores in 2016. He had two 300-yard passing games, a first for a freshman quarterback at UB.

Drew Anderson will likely serve as Jackson's backup. At 6-5, Anderson is another big quarterback with a strong arm. He appeared in one game last season and had only one pass attempt. Anderson transferred to UB from Diablo Valley College prior to the 2016 season where he threw for 3,459 yards and 33 touchdowns in 2015.

Also, in the mix at quarterback at redshirt-freshmen Dominic Johnson, as well as Kyle Vantrease, a freshman who joined the program in January.

RUNNING BACK

The Bulls will have to replace All-MAC running back Jordan Johnson, who graduated as the school's sixth all-time leading rusher, including a 1,040-yard season a year ago.

Johnathan Hawkins showed flashes of playmaking ability last season and is the leading candidate for the starting job in 2017. The Georgia native played in all 12 games last year and rushed for 338 yards and a touchdown. He proved to be a good target out of the backfield as he ranked fourth on the team in receiving with 21 catches for 119 yards and a touchdown.

Sophomore Emmanuel Reed saw action in three games last season, but will likely see his role increase in 2017. Theo Anderson and Kameron Pickett both redshirted last season as freshman, but will likely be in the running back rotation this year.

WIDE RECEIVER

The Bulls will need to replace a pair of starters in Marcus McGill and Malcolm Robinson at wide receiver, but do return starter Kamathi Holsey. A senior, Holsey started 10 games in 2016, his first season with the Bulls, and had 19 receptions for 189 yards and a touchdown.

JACKSON

Jacob Martinez has been a steady contributor over his career, but was limited to seven games in 2016 with an injury. Fully healthy, Martinez, a senior, looks to build on the 50 catches for 554 yards and five touchdowns he has over his career.

Fellow senior Jamarl Eiland is coming off the best season of his career with 18 receptions for 175 yards and a touchdown.

After redshirting as a true freshman in 2015, K.J. Osborn showed promise in 2016. The IMG Academy grad played in all 12 games and made two starts. He had eight catches for 105 yards and a touchdown on the season.

Speedsters Anthony Johnson, Tito Overton, Antonio Nunn and Jerin Scroggins redshirted last season and will look for a more expanded role in 2017.

TIGHT END

For the second straight year, the Bulls will need to replace an All-MAC tight end. In 2016, Mason Schreck followed up Matt Weiser's All-MAC season with one of his own. With the graduation of Schreck, the Bulls will look to a new starter to fill the shoes.

Tyler Mabry is the most likely candidate to earn the job. As a redshirt-freshman last season, the Michigan native had nine catches for 95 yards. He registered a catch in seven different games.

Maryland transfer Andrew Gray had to sit out last season per NCAA rules, but is ready to go this year.

Redshirt-freshman Zac Lafebvre and true freshman Julien Bourassa both exhibit good size and should work their way into the tight end rotation.

OFFENSIVE LINE

One of the strengths of the 2017 UB football team looks to be the offensive line with four starters returning and a pair of transfers eligible to play.

The line is anchored by third-year starting center James O'Hagan. The UB junior started all 24 games of the previous two seasons. He was named to the All-MAC Third Team in 2016.

At guard, senior Brandon Manosalvas has made 22 starts over the last two seasons and has appeared in 31 games over his career. He has played both guard positions, but started all 12 at left guard last season.

Senior David Goldsby started all 12 games last season, but really found a home at right tackle after moving to the position five games into the 2016 campaign. Although he has also played guard in his career, he will likely remain the Bulls' starting right tackle in 2017.

As a true freshman, Tomas Jack-Kurdyla entered the starting lineup at right guard in week five last season and didn't miss a beat. He remained a starter the rest of the season.

The Bulls had a pair of talented transfers join the program in 2016, but both had to sit out per NCAA rules. Jacquis Webb will likely challenge for the starting left tackle job after transferring from Rutgers. Paul Nosworthy transferred from Grambling State and will likely be in the guard rotation.

Sophomore Evin Ksiezarczyk saw action last season in special teams formations and could also challenge for a starting spot at tackle in 2017.

HOLSEY

D. HARRIS

HODGE

Others that will battle for playing time in 2016 are Kayode Awosika, Skyler Hartley, and Brad Rowland.

DEFENSIVE LINE

The Bulls lost five players from a very deep defensive line, including two starters, but do return two starters and others that played well last season.

Demone Harris is a returning defensive end, a position at which he has started for the past two seasons. Last year he had 30 tackles and ranked third on the team with three sacks.

Also returning to the starting defensive line is defensive tackle Chris Ford. A senior, Ford started 19 games over the last two seasons and had 30 tackles, including three tackles for loss last season.

Likely to line up next to Ford is Justin Brandon. The junior defensive tackle started four games last season and had 16 tackles on the year.

One candidate with a good chance to fill the other starting defensive end spot is Chuck Harris. The junior from Michigan has seen extensive time over his first two seasons, including a five tackle-for-loss year in 2016.

Junior Myles Nicholas saw game action last season and will add depth to the line. After playing as a true freshman, Duke Hwang redshirted last season due to the depth at the position. He will be back in the rotation in 2017.

Also likely to join the defensive line rotation are juniors Wesley Scott and Jake Khoury as well as freshman Malcolm Koonce who joined the program in January.

LINEBACKERS

The strength of the defense is without question the linebackers as all three starters return for 2017. UB's three starting linebackers were the top three tackler on the team a season ago.

The unit is led by middle linebacker Khalil Hodge who was an All-MAC Second Team selection in 2016. The junior from Stockton, CA had a team-high 123 tackles in 2016 to rank eighth in school history and second in UB's FBS era for a single season.

Ishmael Hargrove had a breakout campaign in 2016, his first as a starter. He ranked second on the team in tackles with 103 and added 5.5 tackles for loss. He had an innate ability to create turnovers with three force fumbles, two fumble recoveries and an interception on the year.

The other returning starter at outside linebacker is Jarrett Franklin. The senior is coming off the best season of his career, ranking third on the team in tackles with 75 in 2016.

Matt Otwinowski played significant snaps as a reserve middle linebacker in 2016. The Indiana native had 32 tackles, including 2.5 tackles for loss as a true freshman last year.

Jordan Collier has also been a solid reserve over his career. The former UAB transfer had 18 tackles and a pair of sacks in 2016.

Nik Ricks transferred to UB from Ellsworth Community College and joined the program in January. He had 54 tackles, including nine tackles for loss for the Panthers last season.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

The Bulls lost All-MAC cornerback Boise Ross to graduation, but do return some experience in the defensive backfield.

Cameron Lewis started all 12 games at cornerback a season ago. He ranked sixth on the team in tackles with 60 and tied for the team lead in pass breakups with seven.

Junior Tatum Slack stepped in for an injured Ross and made three starts last season. He had a standout game in his first career start with five tackles and a sack against Akron.

Brandon Williams will also challenge for a starting role in 2017. The junior made a pair of starts last season and finished the year with 17 tackles, an interception and a forced fumble.

Also adding depth at cornerback are sophomore Jeremiah Dadeboe and redshirt-freshmen Roy Baker and Tyrone Hill.

At safety, the Bulls are led by stalwart Ryan Williamson. The senior free safety has played in all 33 games of his career and has started the last 24 for the Bulls. Williamson had 83 and 74 tackles, respectively, in 2015 and 2016.

At the free safety position, expect to see Tim Roberts back in the starting role. After transferring to UB from Fullerton College prior to last season, Robert started 10 games in 2016 and had 64 tackles and a team-best two interceptions.

Dev Lamour will also battle for the starting free safety job after starting once in 2016. He had 22 tackles and a forced fumble last year.

Freshmen Aliyu Abbas and Dawun Hylton joined the team in January and will add depth at the position.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Adam Mitcheson returns for a third season as Buffalo's starting kicker. The junior was 11-for-18 on field goal attempts and 21-of-23 on field goal attempts in 2016.

At punter, the Bulls return starter Kyle DeWeen who was a nice surprise for the team a season ago. Originally a walk-on, DeWeen earned the starting job prior to the 2016 season and went on to average 39.8 yards per punt – 10th best in school history for a single season.

Taylor Sheets served as a kickoff specialist a season ago, but was originally recruited as a punter and will battle for that job as well.

Head Coach Lance Leipold

Lance Leipold is in his third season as head coach of the Buffalo football team.

In 2016, Leipold led a very young squad, featuring 42 new players. The Bulls were the fourth most inexperienced team in the nation. Buffalo earned impressive wins over Army (a bowl team) and Akron. Buffalo had four players named to the All-MAC team.

In 2015, his first with the Bulls, Leipold led UB to a 5-7 mark. He became the first UB head coach to win five games in his first season since Bob Deming went 6-3 in 1969.

Included in the Bulls five wins was a victory at Florida Atlantic - Buffalo's first non-conference road win since the 2009 season.The Bulls won three road games in 2015 - the most in UB's FBS era (since 1999).

The Bulls had five players named to the All-MAC football team in 2015, led by tight end Matt Weiser who was also named an Academic All-American – becoming the first UB football player in the modern era to earn the distinction.

Leipold was named the 25th head coach in the history of the Buffalo football program on December 1, 2014.

Leipold came to UB from Wisconsin-Whitewater where he compiled an astounding 109-6 record and won six Division III National Championships over his eight seasons. A six-time National Coach of the Year, Leipold reached 100 career victories faster than any other coach in NCAA history – at any level.

Leipold has gathered multiple honors from as many as five football-related organizations. He earned his sixth American Football Coaches Association Division III Coach of the Year award in 2014. He has won the award more times than any active coach at any level. He passed the late Joe Paterno, who was a five-time recipient of the award.

In his first season as head coach at Whitewater, The Warhawks went 14-1 and won the national title. He led the Warhawks back to the national championship game in 2008, but they lost to Mount Union, 31-26. Wisconsin-Whitewater went 15-0, winning the national championship in 2009, 2010 and 2011 and won 46 straight games over that span. Following a 7-3 season in 2012, UWW went a perfect 15-0 and won the national championship in 2013 and followed with another perfect 15-0 season and a national title in 2014.

In Division III, where athletic scholarships aren't a part of the game, Leipold was able to recruit top-notch talent to the campus in southeastern Wisconsin. During his tenure, running back Justin Beaver earned the Gagliardi Trophy as the top player in Division III. Brent Allen earned the Division III Rimington Award as the top center. Jeff Schebler was the first recipient of the Fred Mitchell Award, given to the top placekicker in Division II or III. Tailback Levell Coppage earned D3football.com Offensive Player of the Year accolades, and Cole Klotz was selected D3football.com Defensive Player of the Year. Defensive back Jared Kiesow was named an NCAA Elite 88 Award winner. The Warhawks have piled up 56 All-America honors under Leipold's tutelage.

A native of Jefferson, WI, Leipold began his coaching career at Wisconsin-Whitewater in 1987 as a quarterbacks coach and then wide receivers coach. He moved to the University of Wisconsin from 1991-93 as a graduate assistant and helped the Badgers to a Big Ten title and a Rose Bowl appearance in 1993.

The Leipold File

As an assistant coach at Division II Nebraska-Omaha from 1994-2000, Leipold helped turn the Mavericks from a 1-10 team in 1994 into three-time North Central Conference champions during his tenure. After being promoted to offensive coordinator in 2000, he moved on to the University of Nebraska, where he served for three seasons under current Ohio head coach Frank Solich. He was on the same staff as former UB head coach Turner Gill. The Cornhuskers competed in the national championship game in 2001 and earned bowl bids in 2002 and 2003.

He returned to Nebraska-Omaha to serve as associate head coach and offensive coordinator from 2004-06. The Mavericks finished 8-3 and won the conference championship each of his three seasons.

Leipold is a 1987 graduate of Wisconsin-Whitewater where he was a standout quarterback for the Warhawks. He ranks second in school history in career pass attempts (647), fourth in yards (4,277), sixth in completions (303) and tied for 10th with 27 touchdowns. He was inducted into the Whitewater Hall of Fame in 2003.

Leipold and his wife, Kelly, have a daughter, Lindsey, and a son, Landon.

Andy Kotelnicki

Offensive Coordinator/Running Backs
UW-River Falls '04
Third Season at Buffalo

Andy Kotelnicki is in his third season as offensive coordinator. He will coach the running backs in 2017 after serving as quarterbacks coach his first two seasons.

In 2016, the Bulls had three offensive players named All-MAC, including tight end Mason Schreck (2nd team), running back Jordan Johnson (3rd team) and center James O'Hagan (3rd team). Redshirt-freshman quarterback Tyree Jackson threw for 1,772 yards - the most ever by a UB freshman quarterback. Jackson also became the first freshman quarterback to throw for 300 yards in a game (he did it twice).

In 2015, the Bulls averaged 249.5 passing yards and 136.9 rushing yards per game. Also the quarterbacks coach, Kotelnicki oversaw a passing game that had 283 pass completions – the second most in school history for a single season. The Bulls' 23.6 completions per game were the most ever.

Kotelnicki came to UB from Wisconsin-Whitewater where he had spent the previous two seasons as offensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator.

At UWW, Kotelnicki led an offense that led the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WIAC) in scoring offense (40.1), rushing offense (218.2) and passing offense (269.5) in 2014 en route to a perfect 15-0 season and the programs' sixth Stagg Bowl national championship in eight seasons.

The Warhawks featured one of the most efficient offensive attacks in the nation under Kotelnicki's leadership in 2013. Whitewater led the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference and ranked among the top five in the nation in first downs (311), interceptions allowed (1) and turnover margin (+2.3).

The Warhawks' offense also led the conference in red zone offense, converting scores on 85.9 percent of drives inside the 20-yard line, and set single-season team records in passes completed (312) and passing touchdowns (42) in 2013.

Prior to Whitewater, Kotelnicki served as offensive coordinator at the University of Mary, an NCAA Division II institution in Bismarck, N.D., for two seasons. In his first year as coordinator, the Marauders scored over 10 points per game more than the previous season and led the Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference in scoring offense, total offense and passing efficiency. During his tenure, Kotelnicki mentored nine All-NSIC North Division honorees, the sixth 1,000-yard rusher in the school's history and an All-American wide receiver.

Kotelnicki spent six seasons as an assistant coach at UW-River Falls, including four as offensive coordinator, in 2003 and from 2006-10. The Falcons set 24 offensive school records during his second stint, and he was promoted to assistant head coach for the 2010 campaign.

Kotelnicki worked at Western Illinois University, where he coached tight ends, special teams and the offensive line, from 2004-06. He was also an assistant strength and conditioning coach from 2004-05 and the interim strength and conditioning coach in 2006.

After earning a bachelor's in exercise and sport science from UW-River Falls in 2004, Kotelnicki picked up a master's in kinesiology from Western Illinois in 2006. He is a member of the American Football Coaches Association and the Wisconsin Football Coaches Association.

Kotelnicki and his wife, Lindsey, have a son, Max, and daughter, Joy.

Brian Borland

Defensive Coordinator/Safeties
Morningside (IA) '85
Third Season at Buffalo

Brian Borland is in his third season as defensive coordinator

In 2016, Borland guided a defense that led the MAC and ranked 13th in the nation in pass defense, allwoing 181.5 yards per game. Linebacker Khalil Hodge accumulated 213 tackles, the eighth most in school history for a single season, and was named All-MAC Second Team.

The Bulls were a very opportunistic defense in 2015. UB scored a school-record seven defensive touchdowns (by seven different players) to rank second in the nation.

Three members of his defense were named to the All-Mid-American Conference team in 2015. Linebacker Brandon Berry was named to the second team. Linebacker Okezie Alozie and cornerback Boise Ross were named to the third team. Ross broke the school record for passes defended in a season with 20 to rank fifth in the nation.

Borland came to UB from Wisconsin-Whitewater where he spent the previous 21 seasons. Since 2002, Borland served as the Warhawks defensive coordinator.

Borland began at UW-W in 1994, also serving as the defensive backs coach. He was announced as a 2015 Wisconsin Football Coaches Association Hall of Fame inductee.

Borland was named Division III Coordinator of the Year in 2013 by footballscoop.com after helping lead the Warhawks to the NCAA Division III national championship, the team's fifth in seven seasons. UW-Whitewater led the nation in scoring defense, allowing just 9.1 points per contest, and ranked No. 1 in the country in fumbles recovered (19) and turnovers forced (44).

From 2009-14, Borland's defenses led the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference and ranked among the top 20 in the nation in rushing defense, scoring defense and total defense. The Warhawks also led the league in pass efficiency from 2010-13.

Borland earned Wisconsin Collegiate Assistant Coach of the Year honors from the Wisconsin Football Coaches Association in both 2004 and 2006. In the 2009 season, Borland led the Warhawks to the fourth best scoring defense in Division III. In 2010, the Warhawks were ranked second in NCAA Division III in run defense. In 2011, Borland's rushing defense was ranked first in the WIAC.

From 1994-2002, Borland also coached track and field at UW-Whitewater. In 2000, he led the Whitewater women's track and field team to a fourth place finish at the NCAA Division III Outdoor Track and Field Championships. He earned NCAA D-III national coach of the year honors for his successful season.

Prior to Whitewater, Borland was the defensive coordinator for three years at Baker University (Kan.) from 1991-93, and at the University of Minnesota-Morris from 1989-90. He also was the head women's softball coach at Baker University and head track and field coach at the University of Minnesota-Morris. Borland's other stops include stints as a graduate assistant football coach at the University of Florida and at the University of Wisconsin. He also coached defensive backs at Arizona Western College.

Borland played his college football at Morningside (Iowa) College (1981-84) where he was a four-year letterwinner and three-year starter at defensive back, and a team captain.

In addition to his football coaching duties at UW-W, Borland taught in the HPRC Department.

He has a wife, Gayle, and two sons, Evan and Jaren.

Rob Ianello

Associated Head Coach/Wide Receivers
Catholic '87
Third Season at Buffalo

Rob Ianello is in his third season as associate head coach, recruiting coordinator and wide receivers coach.

Buffalo's receivers flourished under Ianello in 2015. For the first time as an FBS program (since 1999) the Bulls had three players with 50 or more catches in a season. Matt Weiser had 63; Ron Willoughby had 61 and Marcus McGill had 50.

Ianello brought over 25 years of experience to UB and isrecognized as one of the best recruiters in college football. He most recently spent three seasons on the Kansas football staff where he was the recruiting coordinator and wide receivers coach.

Ianello was instrumental in helping bring the 25th-rated signing class to Kansas in 2013 according to The Sporting News. The Jayhawk class had two four-star prospects, including the top-rated JUCOprospect in the nation in defensive lineman Marquel Combs.

No stranger to the Mid-American Conference, Ianello served as head coach at Akron for the 2010 and 2011 seasons. Prior to his stint at Akron, Ianello was a member of the coaching staff at Notre Dame from 2005-09. He coached the Irish in the 2008 Hawai'i Bowl, 2007 Sugar Bowl and 2006 Fiesta Bowl.

From 2005-08 at Notre Dame, he served as wide receivers coach and coordinated the recruiting efforts of the Irish. In January 2009,he was promoted to assistant head coach for offense. In that role, he led offensive staff meetings when head coach Charlie Weis was not present, and later served as the team's interim head coach.

Notre Dame's 2009 offense ranked sixth nationally in passing offense (323.50 ypg) and ninth in total offense (451.75 ypg). Ianello mentored Irish wide receiver Golden Tate, who was the 2009 Biletnikoff Award winner and a consensus All-American. Additionally, he coached Jeff Samardzija, who was a Biletnikoff Award finalist in 2005 and 2006 and earned All-America honors in 2006.

As the recruiting coordinator for the Irish, he directed three consecutive top-10 recruiting classes from 2006-08, something only three other schools (USC, Florida and Georgia) could claim. Additionally, Ianello is the only coach named one of the 25-best recruiters nationally from 2005-09 by Rivals.com. In the book "TheSecond Season" by recruiting analyst Tom Lemming, Ianello is name done of the top-10 recruiters of the last 30 years.

Ianello had two coaching stints at Wisconsin (1990-93, 2003-04), and was part of a staff that helped lead the Badgers to the 1994 Rose Bowl, the 2003 Music City Bowl and the 2005 Outback Bowl.

From 1994-2002, Ianello was on staff at Arizona, serving asrecruiting coordinator from 1994-96, and wide receivers coach andrecruiting coordinator from 1997-2002. The Wildcats played in twobowl games, the 1997 Insight.com Bowl and the 1998 Holiday Bowl. The 1998 Arizona team finished 12-1, which stands as the bestrecord in school history.

Ianello served on the board of trustees of the American Football Coaches Association in from 2003 to 2009. The board formulates policy and provides direction for the AFCA. He also has served as the chair of the AFCA's assistant coaches' committee and the general chairman of the AFCA's all-division assistant coaches' committee. He also served on the AFCA ethics committee in 2010 and 2011.

Born Nov. 4, 1965, Ianello is a native of Port Chester, N.Y., and is a 1987 graduate of The Catholic University of America inWashington, D.C., owning a bachelor's degree in English.

Ianello and his wife, the former Denise Dove, have one son, Zachary, and two daughters, Ashley and Courtney. Denise played collegiate basketball at Northern Illinois and is a former assistant women's basketball coach at Arizona and Wisconsin. She has also worked as a scout in the WNBA.

Daryl Agpalsa

Offensive Line
Linfield '02
Third Season at Buffalo

Daryl Agpalsa is in his third season as offensive line coach.

In 2016, Agpalsa's offensive line paved the way for Jordan Johnson's 1,000-yard season, including his school-record 282-yard performance against Akron. Center James O'Hagan was named All-MAC Third Team, becoming just the second center in program history named All-MAC.

In 2015, the Bulls averaged 249.5 passing yards and 136.9 rushing yards per game. UB allowed only 16 sacks on the year – the fourth fewest in the Mid-American Conference. Left tackle John Kling was named to the All-MAC Second Team.

Agpalsa joined the UB staff in 2014 after spending the previous two seasons as an assistant coach for the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater football team. He worked with the offensive line, specifically in coordinating the run game and protections.

UW-Whitewater finished the 2014 season 15-0 and won the Stagg Bowl national championship for the sixth time in eight seasons. The Warhawks led the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WIAC) in scoring offfense (40.1), rushing offense (218.2) and passing offense (269.5).

In 2013, under Agpalsa's leadership, the offensive line blocked for the WIAC's No. 2 rushing offense and the league's No. 3 passing attack. The Warhawks averaged 166.7 yards per game on the ground and 231.1 yards per contest through the air, and set program records in completions and touchdown passes.

Prior to Whitewater, Agpalsa served as a graduate assistant coach for the offensive line at the University of Minnesota for three seasons. He mentored a pair of All-Big Ten offensive lineman and worked under head coaches Tim Brewster and Jerry Kill during his time.

Agpalsa also coached at Hamline (Minn.) University from April 2007-February 2010, and Linfield (Ore.) College from August 2003-March 2007. He helped produce four all-conference offensive linemen during his time at Hamline, and 10 all-conference linemen, including two All-Americans, at Linfield, which won three straight league titles (2003, 2004, 2005) and the 2004 NCAA Division III championship.

As a former student-athlete at Linfield, Agpalsa was a two-year captain and three-year All-Northwest Conference selection, and a first team All-America honoree in 2002, as an offensive lineman. The four-year starter helped lead the Wildcats to NWC championships in 2000, 2001 and 2002.

A native of Waipahu, Hawaii, Agpalsa graduated from Linfield in 2002 with a bachelor's in business. He earned his master's in education (applied kinesiology and sport management) from Minnesota in 2012.

Agpalsa and his wife, Ali, have a daughter, Addison.

Alan Hensell

Tight Ends
Franklin '05
Third Season at Buffalo

Alan Hensell is in his third season as tight ends coach. In each of his two seasons with the Bulls, the Bulls have produced an All-MAC tight end.

In 2016, Mason Schreck was a second-team All-MAC selection after leading the Bulls with 59 catches for 651 yards. His receiving yard total was the most in school history by a tight end. Schreck was selected by the Cincinnati Bengals in the seventh round of the 2017 NFL Draft - becoming the first UB tight end ever drafted.

In 2015, Hensell coached Matt Weiser who had arguably the best season by a tight end in school history. Weiser set the school record for receptions by a tight end with 63 en route to earning All-MAC First Team honors. Weiser also became the first player in UB's FBS era to be named an Academic All-American.

Hensell came to UB after spending the previous two seasons with the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater football team as its wide receivers coach.

In 2014 as wide receivers coach at UWW, Hensell helped lead the Warhawks to the top passing offense ranking in the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WIAC). Four of his wide receivers earn All-WIAC honors, including two that were named to the first team. Jake Kumerow was named the Division III Player of the Year.

The Warhawks went a perfect 15-0 in 2014 and won the Stagg Bowl for the sixth time in eight years.

In 2013, two wide receivers earned All-WIAC accolades, including first team honoree Kumerow. A second team All-West Region selection by d3football.com, Kumerow set school records for receiving yards (1,331) and receiving touchdowns (19) in one season. The team's strong receiving corps helped the Warhawks post a 15-0 record and a national championship.

Hensell came to UWW from D1-AA (FCS) member Gardner-Webb (N.C.) University, where he was the offensive line coach. During the 2012 season, he helped produce three All-Big South Conference selections, including left guard Jamie Dunaway, who received third team All–America honors. A total of four players have garnered All–America honors while being tutored by Hensell.

A New Carlisle, IN, native, Hensell spent time at the University of Connecticut as an offensive quality control coach in February 2012 before joining the Gardner-Webb staff.

Hensell spent the previous five seasons in the Southeastern Conference, including the 2011 season as assistant offensive line coach and offensive graduate assistant at Ole Miss. He worked with the Rebels' offensive line and tight ends in 2011, helping mentor right tackle Bobby Massie, who was drafted in the fourth round of the 2012 NFL Draft by the Arizona Cardinals.

In 2010, Hensell served as assistant offensive line coach and offensive intern at the University of Tennessee, where he had the opportunity to coach center James Stone, who earned freshman All-America honors for the Vols. Tennessee was selected to play in the Music City Bowl following the regular season.

Hensell worked his first stint at Ole Miss from 2007-09, working as assistant offensive line coach in 2008 and 2009. The Rebels were 9-4 in each of those seasons, finishing the seasons with AP ranks of Nos. 14 and 20, respectively, and won a pair of Cotton Bowls. In 2008, Ole Miss averaged 407.6 yards of total offense per game and 186.5 yards per game on the ground. Left tackle Michael Oher earned first-team All-America honors and was taken in the first round of the NFL Draft by the Baltimore Ravens. In 2009, the Rebels averaged 402.4 yards per game of total offense, including 183.6 on the ground. Standout offensive lineman John Jerry earned first-team All-America honors that season and was picked in the third round of the NFL Draft by the Miami Dolphins.

Hensell began his college coaching career at his alma mater, coaching outside linebackers at Franklin (IN) College in 2004. Hensell also served as a student assistant baseball coach during his time at Franklin, helping the team to a 29-15 record, a Heartland Conference championship and a No. 24 national ranking in 2005.

Following his time on staff at Franklin, Hensell moved on to coach quarterbacks at UW-River Falls in 2005 and 2006. He helped tutor Jeremy Wolff, one of only three signal callers in Division III selected to play in the Aztec Bowl, to All-WIAC honors in 2006.

Hensell started his career in coaching in 2003 at Decatur Central (Ind.) High, coaching quarterbacks following a career-ending injury on the college gridiron.

As a student-athlete, Hensell played two sports at Franklin as a freshman, lining up at running back and receiver, and pitching for the Grizzlies' baseball team. He helped the baseball squad to a 32-10 record, a Heartland Conference title and a No. 30 national ranking as a freshman in 2002. He came to Franklin from New Prairie (Ind.) High School, where he was a three-sport standout in football, basketball and baseball, earning 10 letters throughout his prep career.

Hensell graduated from Franklin in 2005 with a B.A. in physical education (K-12) and a minor in health education. He earned a master's degree in science and education from Wisconsin-Whitewater in 2015.

Chris Simpson

Linebackers
Wisconsin-Whitewater '98
Third Season at Buffalo

Chris Simpson is in his third season as linebackers coach.

In 2016, for the second straight season, Simpson's linebackers were the top three leading tacklers on the team. Khalil Hodge had a huge season for the Bulls, finishing with 123 tackles, the eighth most in school history for a single season and the second most in UB's FBS era. Hodge was named All-MAC Second Team.

Simpson made an immediate impact with the Bulls as the linebackers were arguably the strongest unit of the Bulls defense in 2015. The top three tacklers on the team were linebackers and for the first time since 2008, the Bulls had two different players with over 100 tackles as Nick Gilbo finished with 113 and Brandon Berry had 104. Berry was named All-MAC Second Team and Okezie Alozie was named third-team All-MAC.

Simpson came to UB after spending 2014 as the outside linebackers coach at MAC-foe Eastern Michigan.

Prior to coaching at EMU, Simpson spent the previous four seasons as linebackers coach at Grand Valley State. During his time in Allendale, Mich., the team posted a 39-11 record and four Division II playoff victories. He also tutored six All-Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) performers during that span.

Grand Valley closed the 2013 football campaign ranked third in the final American Football Coaches Association poll. The Lakers advanced to the NCAA DII National Semifinals for the eighth time after knocking off undefeated and No. 3 ranked Colorado State University-Pueblo.

Senior linebacker Jordan Kaufman received second team All-GLIAC honors after leading the squad in tackles with 87, while also recording eight tackles for loss, a fumble recovery and returning a blocked field goal 56 yards for a score. Also earning honorable mention league honors for GVSU were senior linebackers Charles Hill and Luther Ware.

His 2011 linebacking unit was a key component in a Laker defense that ended the year among the GLIAC leaders. GVSU led the league in tackles for loss (93) and sacks (36), while ranking second in scoring defense (20.2). GVSU limited opponents to 15.5 points per game in its last five games that season.

Simpson's linebacking unit helped the Laker defense rank nationally in several categories, including the top 20 in tackles for loss and quarterback sacks in 2010. Ware and Justin Victor earned All-GLIAC accolades during the 2010 campaign.

He arrived at GVSU following a two-year stint at the University of Nebraska-Omaha under current EMU defensive coordinator Brad McCaslin. The Mavericks were 14-9 with one appearance in the NCAA DII playoffs during his time on the staff.

Simpson spent five years at Division III national power Wisconsin-Whitewater where he was an assistant coach in charge of the linebackers. UWW was 42-3 his final three seasons with three-straight NCAA DIII National Championship game appearances and three Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference crowns. The Warhawks claimed the 2007 National Championship and turned in an overall mark of 56-9 during his five years on the staff.

In addition, Simpson coached two years (1999-2000) at Waunakee (Wis.) High School, one year (2001) at Loras College in Dubuque, Iowa, as a graduate assistant and one year (2002) at Wisconsin-Platteville. In the summer of 2006, Simpson was selected as a participant at the NCAA Men's Football Coaches Academy.

He also has received an NFL Minority Coaching Internship on six occasions, from the Green Bay Packers for defensive line and special teams in the summer of 2006, in 2007 with the Dallas Cowboys, in 2008 with the Carolina Panthers, in 2009 with the Minnesota Vikings and Cleveland Browns and in 2013 with the Detroit Lions.

Simpson graduated with a bachelor's degree from Wisconsin-Whitewater in physical education in 1998. He earned his master's in curriculum and instruction in 2004.

Simpson and his wife, Nicole, have three children: Jarryn, Riley and Noah.

Tim Edwards

Defensive Line
Delta State '91
Third Season at Buffalo

Tim Edwards is in his third season as defensive line coach.

In 2016, the UB defensive line was one of strengths of the defense. Of the Bulls' 18 sacks on the season, 10 came defensive linemen, including a team-high four from Brandon Crawford.

In 2015, he molded a young defensive line unit that showed promise throughout the season. He helped lead a defense that scored seven defensive touchdowns, which ranked second in the nation.

Edwards has 21 years of coaching experience. He spent four years as defensive line coach at Louisiana-Lafayette before coming to Buffalo.

Louisiana-Lafayette won the New Orleans Bowl in all four seasons he was with the Ragin' Cajuns. In 2014, the team led the Sun Belt Conference in rush defense and defensive linemen Christian Ringoand Justin Hamilton were both named All-Sun Belt First Team. Edwards also coached an all-conference defensive lineman in 2011, 2012 and 2013.

Prior to coaching at Louisiana-Lafayette, Edwards spent three seasons as co-defensive coordinator and defensive ends coach at Florida A&M. In 2010, the Rattlers were co-champions of the MEAC and Edwards was selected to coach in the HBCU All-Star Bowl.

Edwards spent four seasons as defensive line coach and linebackers coach as well as recruiting coordinator at Hampton University. The Pirates were MEAC Champions and FCS playoff participants in 2004, 2005 and 2006. Hampton finished in the top six in the FCS in scoring defense in 2005 and 2006.

He also had coaching stints at Pearl River Community College, Kentucky State and the Carolina Rhinos of the AFL2.

Edwards is a 1991 graduate of Delta State University with a degree in aviation management. He was an All-American linebacker/defensive lineman for the Statesmen and is in the school's hall of fame. He played three seasons for the New England Patriots as well as three seasons for the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the CFL.

He and his wife, LuAnn, have three children, Halena, Timothy II and Kenci.

Taiwo Onatolu

Cornerbacks/Special Teams Coordinator
Nebraska-Omaha '06
Third Season at Buffalo

Taiwo Onatolu is in his second season as cornerbacks coach after starting his career at UB as director of player personnel. He also serves as the team's special teams coordinator.

In 2016, UB's defense led the MAC and ranked 13th in the nation in pass defense - allowing 181.5 yards per game.

Onatolu came to UB from Missouri State where he spent the previous five seasons at inside linebakers coach. He is a native of Papillion, NE, and spent the 2007 to 2010 seasons as an assistant at the University of Nebraska-Omaha.

He was also a standout linebacker at UNO, starting four seasons for the Mavericks, earning All-NCC first-team honors three times and All-America first-team honors in 2004. He was the North Central Conference's most valuable linebacker in 2004 after posting 98 tackles and 5 interceptions. He was in on 71 tackles as a senior, helping him earn All-America second and third-team honors by different agencies.

Onatolu finished his four-year stint at UNO as the program's No. 2 all-time tackler with 371 total stops. He also tallied 46.5 tackles for loss, 12.5 sacks, 7 interceptions and 182 solo tackles in 44 games. He helped the Mavericks to a pair of NCC titles and a 2005 playoff appearance.

After completing his degree in Communication, Public Affairs & Community Service from UNO in 2006, Onatolu stayed at UNO for two years as a graduate assistant coach, working with the squad's linebackers. He coached All-American safety Randy Kush in 2007, the school's all-time leader in interceptions. He moved to full-time status in March 2010 and helped UNO to a combined 29-16 ledger during his four years on staff, including NCAA Division II playoff appearances in 2007, 2008 and 2009.

In his first season at Missouri State in 2011, he had the best of both worlds with a gritty and determined senior in David Ingram at one inside linebacker spot and a redshirt freshman in Andrew Beisel at the other. Beisel went on to record a team-high 84 tackles, becoming the first MSU freshman since 1998 to lead the club in total stops and earned MVFC All-Newcomer Team distinction. Ingram, who started all 11 games, tallied 77 tackles and finished third on the squad.

In 2012, Onatolu used five different starters in his rotation, including Beisel who led all middle linebackers with 73 stops in 10 games, while redshirt freshman Christian Hoffmann brought down 41 ball carriers with 5 starts in an impressive debut campaign.

It was Beisel and Hoffmann who led Onatolu's inside backers again in 2013. Beisel tallied 96 stops while starting all 12 games and earning All-MVFC honorable mention honors his junior campaign, while Hoffmann earned 9 starts his sophomore season with 36 total stops. The tandem helped Missouri State rank among the national leaders in red zone defense, rushing defense, scoring defense and passing defense, while ranking as one of the top defensive units in the MVFC.

Onatolu's twin brother, Kenny, has enjoyed a professional career that began with the Edmonton Eskimos in the Canadian Football League and included stints with the Minnesota Vikings and Carolina Panthers. He was also an All-NCC linebacker.

Jim Zebrowksi

Quarterbacks/Passing Game Coordinator
Mount Union '91
First Season at Buffalo

Jim Zebrowksi, a coaching veteran in the Big Ten and the Mid-American Conference, begins his first season as quarterbacks. Zebrowksi brings 25 years of coaching experience to Buffalo, including five successful seasons at Minnesota.

Zebrowski was the quarterbacks coach at Minnesota from 2011-15 and helped lead the Gophers to three straight bowl games. He is well known for developing young quarterbacks. Minnesota signal-caller Mitch Leidner advanced from running the scout team to accounting for 2,250 yards and 21 touchdowns in 2014. Leidner had 10 rushing touchdowns, tying the school record for a quarterback.

He helped lead the Gophers to the Meineke Car Care Bowl in 2012, the Texas Bowl in 2013 and the Citrus Bowl in 2014. He likely would have stayed at Minnesota. However, head coach Jerry Kill stepped down for health reasons in 2015, resulting in changes to the coaching staff.

Prior to coaching at Minnesota, Zebrowksi was the quarterbacks coach at Northern Illinois in 2010. He tutored All-MAC quarterback Chandler Harnish, an NFL draft pick of the Indianapolis Colts. He also laid the foundation for Harnish's backup Jordan Lynch who was an All-American and a Heisman Trophy finalist in 2013. Featuring a high-powered offense that averaged over 35 points per game, Zebrowski helped lead the Huskies to the 2010 MAC Championship game and a win over Fresno State in the Humanitarian Bowl.

This is the second time Zebrowski will serve under Leipold. He was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Wisconsin-Whitewater from 2007-09. Over his tenure, the Warhawks went 42-3 and advanced to the Division III title game every year, winning it twice. Zebrowksi was named the Wisconsin Football Coaches Association Assistant Coach of the Year and the FootballScoop.com Division III Coordinator of the Year in 2009.

In 2004, he became the head coach at Lakeland University and led the Muskies to a 28-12 record over four seasons. He led Lakeland to a pair of Illini-Badger Conference championships and advanced to the Division III playoffs for the first time in school history.

Zebrowski and his wife, Heather, who was named Female Athlete of the Year during her volleyball playing days at Southern Illinois, have two children, Zachary and Lauryn.

ALBANY 22, BUFFALO 16

SEPT. 2, 2016 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY - Neven Sussman teamed with Brad Harris for a 35-yard touchdown pass and two-point conversion as Albany rallied in the fourth quarter to defeat Buffalo 22-16 on Friday night in the season opener for both teams.

The scoring pass to a wide-open Harris capped an 81-yard drive to put the Great Danes ahead for good. Harris twisted to catch the conversion pass, and Albany iced the win when Kyle Sakowski intercepted a Buffalo pass with 2:38 left in the game.

Sussman completed 14 of 21 passes for 113 yards with a pair of TDs. Sophomore Elijah Ibitokun-Hanks rushed for 104 yards and a touchdown on 23 carries, providing the bulk of Albany's 125 yards on the ground.

Tyree Jackson brought Buffalo to within 14-13 with a 17-yard TD pass just before halftime, and the Bulls grabbed a 16-14 lead on a 45-yard field goal in the third quarter. Jackson fumbled at the goal line with 4:01 remaining.

NEVADA 38, BUFFALO 14

SEPT. 17, 2016 • MACKAY STADIUM • RENO, NV

RENO, NV - James Butler ran for 174 yards and three touchdowns to lead Nevada to a 38-14 victory over Buffalo on Saturday night.

Tyler Stewart ran for a score, and Jaxson Kincaide added 99 yards on 18 carries for the Wolf Pack (2-1). Nevada finished with 352 yards on the ground and 521 yards of offense, bouncing back after putting up just 99 yards rushing in its 39-10 loss at Notre Dame last Saturday.

Stewart was 16 of 21 for 160 yards passing, and he scrambled for a 9-yard touchdown on the Wolf Pack's opening series. Butler scored from inside the 4 on three consecutive Nevada possessions between the second and third quarters to stretch the Wolf Pack's lead to 31-0.

Jordan Johnson had a 57-yard touchdown catch and a 12-yard scoring run for Buffalo (0-2).

BUFFALO 23, ARMY 20 (OT)

SEPT. 24, 2016 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY - In 30 years of coaching, Lance Leipold had never been part of an overtime game before. Adam Mitcheson had never attempted a game-ending field goal before.

Both the Buffalo coach and kicker had memorable first experiences in the Bulls 23-20 comeback victory over Army on Saturday night.

Mitcheson sprinted from one end of the field to the other after making a 33-yard field goal in overtime to secure Buffalo's first win of the season. Afterward, Mitcheson said he'd never been in that situation before. "Not even in high school," he said.

The Bulls scored two touchdowns in the final nine minutes of the fourth quarter to force overtime against a previously unbeaten Black Knights team that had not allowed any of its first three opponents to score in the fourth quarter.

Tyree Jackson passed for 178 yards and a touchdown and ran for 34 yards and two more touchdowns to lead the Buffalo comeback. His 1-yard touchdown plunge tied the game at 20-20 with 2:26 remaining. He also had a 12-yard run in overtime to set up Mitcheson's kick.

Army quarterback Ahmad Bradshaw rushed for a season-high 126 yards on 22 carries and had a 5-yard touchdown run to lead an Army rushing attack that totaled 396 yards. The Black Knights' had the nation's No. 2 rushing offense, averaging 367 yards in its first three games.

The Black Knights scored two touchdowns and one field goal in four trips to the red zone. On the fourth trip, Blake Wilson missed a 34-yard field goal attempt with three seconds left in regulation.

Wilson also missed a 43-yard field goal attempt in OT. He made field goals from 21 and 38 yards in the first half.

Army's Blake Wilson had missed a 43-yard field goal attempt in OT and also missed a 34-yarder in the final three seconds of regulation. Army's starting placekicker, Mitchell Howard, injured his left leg making a tackle on the opening kickoff.

Kamari Holsey caught a 5-yard touchdown from Jackson to cut Army's lead to 20-13 with 8:85 remaining.

Army led 10-0 at halftime, but Bradshaw's fumble on the first drive of the second half gave Buffalo the ball at the Army 23. That led to Jackson's first touchdown, but Mitcheson missed the extra point.

BOSTON COLLEGE 35, BUFFALO 3

OCT. 1, 2016 • ALUMNI STADIUM • CHESTNUT HILL, MA

CHESTNUT HILL, MA - The University at Buffalo football team went up against one of the nation's top defenses and Boston College proved to be just that as the Eagles held the Bulls to just 67 yards of total offense in a 35-3 victory on a rainy, dreary Saturday afternoon at Alumni Stadium.

The final score, however, was not indicative of how well Buffalo's defense played. The Bulls had a season-high 10 tackles for loss, twice that of Boston College, and forced two Eagle turnovers. Khalil Hodge and Jarrett Franklin had 10 tackles apiece to pace the Bulls.

Ishmael Hargrove continued to play well in his first season as a starter. The junior linebacker had six tackles, a sack, two tackles for loss, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. His sack, forced fumble and fumble recovery gave the Bulls the ball at the Boston College 11-yard line. UB was able to convert the turnover into points when Adam Mitcheson connected on a 28-yard field goal to cut the Boston College lead to 14-3 in the second quarter.

The Eagles were able to drive the length of the field on their ensuing possession and score a touchdown with 21 seconds left in the second quarter to take a 21-3 halftime lead.

The UB defense was able to hold Boston College off the scoreboard until the nine minute mark of the fourth quarter when Jon Hilliman scored on a 1-yard run. The Eagles scored a touchdown in the closing seconds to make the final, 35-3.

Boston College, ranked sixth in the nation in defense, was able to control the line of scrimmage all afternoon. The Bulls were limited to just 26 yards rushing and quarterback Tyree Jackson, who hadn't been sacked all season, took some hits and finished 9-of-21 for 42 yards.

"[Boston College] is a physical group and you could see they reacted real well - came downhill," head coach Lance Leipold said. "We never had any semblance of any type of sustained drive or movement, so that's disappointing."

The loss dropped the Bulls to 1-3. Now finished with non-conference action, the Bulls willopen up Mid-American Conference play next Saturday when they host Kent State at UB Stadium.

KENT STATE 44, BUFFALO 20

OCT. 8, 2016 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY - The University at Buffalo football team dropped its Mid-American Conference opener to Kent State, 44-20, at UB Stadium on Saturday afternoon. Kent State quarterback Nick Holley rushed for 224 yards and four touchdowns to spoils UB's homecoming.

Kent State was able to use big plays to set the tone for the afternoon. Kent State quarterback Nick Holley took off on a 65-yard run on the first play from scrimmage to set up a field goal and then scored on a 67-yard touchdown run on the Golden Flashes next possession to quickly give the visiting team a 10-0 lead.

After taking a 13-0 lead, early in the second quarter, Buffalo got on the board with an Adam Mitcheson 34-yard field goal to cut the lead to 13-3 with 4:47 left in the half. The UB defense forced a 3-and-out on the Golden Flashes' ensuing possession. However, on the Bulls very first play, following a Kent State punt, the Golden Flashes forced a fumble, scooped it up and scored to take a 20-3 lead at the break.

The Bulls added another Mitcheson field goal, a 41-yarder, on their first possession of the second half to cut the lead to 20-6. Following another Holley rushing touchdown, the Bulls scored their first touchdown of the game – a 2-yard TD pass from Tyree Jackson to Johnathan Hawkins to make it a two-score game. However, Kent State returned the ensuing kickoff 66 yards and Holley scored his third rushing touchdown of the game, six plays later, to extend the Golden Flashes lead to 34-13.

Jackson scored on a 1-yard rushing touchdown to cut the lead to 34-20 midway through the fourth quarter. But the Golden Flashes answered, once again, as Holley ran up the middle 43 yards for a touchdown.

Jackson finished the game 20-of-39 for a career-high 250 yards and a touchdown and was the Bulls' leading rusher with 40 yards on 11 carries and another score. Marcus McGill had four catches for 65 yards and Malcolm Robinson had four receptions for 52 yards – both career highs.

Defensively, the Bulls were led by Boise Ross who had a career-high eight tackles. Ishmael Hargrove had seven tackles and Ryan Williamson and Khalil Hodge added six apiece.

BALL STATE 31, BUFFALO 21

OCT. 15, 2016 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY - The University at Buffalo football team dropped a 31-21 decision to Ball State at UB Stadium on Saturday afternoon. The Bulls were unable to capitalize on stellar defensive play in the first half and the Cardinals turned a 14-7 halftime deficit into a 10-point victory.

It was a tale of two halves for the Bulls. The defense played a very spirited first half, forcing three turnovers and slowing the Cardinals' offensive attack. However, Ball State's James Gilbert ran for 221 of his career-high 264 yards in the second half to spark the comeback.

"They gashed us and it was disappointing that we couldn't slow them down," head coach Lance Leipold said. "Unfortunately they dominated the line of scrimmage in the second half and it became pretty evident that they went in at halftime and found something that they could expose and they were going to run the ball on us."

The loss spoiled a great effort by redshirt-freshman quarterback Tyree Jackson who had the best game of his young career. The redshirt-freshman signal caller finished 28-of-46 for 306 yards and three touchdowns, all career highs. He became the first freshman quarterback in the Bulls' FBS era (since 1999) to throw for 300 yards in a game.

After Ball State took its opening possession and drove 55 yards for a touchdown, the Bulls responded with an impressive 91-yard touchdown drive to quickly tie the game. Jackson hit Mason Schreck on three straight pass plays, capped by a 7-yard TD pass over the top.

It was a career game for Schreck as the senior tight end finished the day with a career-high nine catches for 61 yards and a touchdown.

The Bulls were able to capitalize on a Ryan Williamson interception, late in the half, when Jackson connected with Malcolm Robinson on a 13-yard touchdown to give the Bulls a 14-7 lead at the half.

The Cardinals effectively ran the ball in the second half and scored three straight rushing touchdowns to take a 28-14 lead early in the fourth quarter. After Ball State extended its lead to 31-14 with a 34-yard field goal, the Bulls were able to march down the field in less than a minute. Jackson found K.J. Osborn on a 39-yard catch and run for a touchdown to make it a 10-point game with 3:56 left. However, the Cardinals were able to recover the onside kick and run out the clock.

Despite the loss, the Bulls were able to roll up a season-best 459 yards of total offense. Jordan Johnson was the Bulls leading rusher with 76 yards to crack the top 10 in school history in career rushing yards. The Buffalo native has 1,491 career rushing yards, good for 10th in school history.

Robinson had a career-high five catches for 80 yards and a touchdown. Osborn had three receptions for 56 yards and a score – all career highs.

Defensively, the Bulls were led by Khalil Hodge who had a game-high 15 tackles, including 2.5 tackles for loss. It was his third game this season with 15 or more tackles. Demone Harris had five tackles (all solo), a sack and a forced fumble. The Bulls forced three turnovers in the game. Ishmael Hargrove had his first career interception in the game.

NORTHERN ILLINOIS 44, BUFFALO 7

OCT. 22, 2016 • HUSKIE STADIUM • DEKALB, IL

DEKALB, IL - Turnovers cost the University at Buffalo football team in a 44-7 loss to Northern Illinois at Huskie Stadium on Saturday afternoon. The Huskies were able to capitalize on Buffalo's four first-half turnovers to build a 31-7 lead at the half and never looked back. It was a disappointing afternoon for a team that had prided itself on taking care of the football – committing only three turnovers in the previous five games.

Jordan Johnson had his best game in recent memory, rushing for 97 yards and a touchdown on only 13 carries. The senior running back surpassed Lee Jones for seventh place in school history with 1,615 career rushing yards.

The day didn't start off well for the Bulls as the Huskies returned the opening kickoff 97 yards for a touchdown. Later in the quarter, Northern Illinois capitalized on an interception with a field goal to quickly take a 10-0 lead.

The turnovers spoiled an afternoon in which the Bulls showed some efficiency moving the football. Buffalo mounted a 9-play, 90-yard drive and Johnson scored on a 29-yard run off left tackle to cut the NIU lead to 10-7.

Trailing, 24-7, late in the half, the Bulls marched the ball down the field looking to cut into the lead before halftime. However, on a 2nd-and-goal play, Northern Illinois came up with an interception in the endzone with just over a minute remaining. To compound the problem, the Huskies managed to drive 80 yards and score a touchdown right before the half.

Tyree Jackson competed over 20 passes for the fourth time in the last five games. The redshirt-freshman quarterback finished the day 25-of-41 for 203 yards, but did toss four interceptions. He connected with nine different receivers for the third straight game.

Senior tight end Mason Schreck had five catches for 43 yards. Johnathan Hawkins had a career-best five receptions for 35 yards. Jamarl Eiland had four catches for 49 yards.

Sophomore linebacker Khalil Hodge had his fifth game with double-digit tackles, finishing with a game-high 11. Junior safety Tim Roberts had eight tackles and had his first career interception. Brandon Crawford had two of the Bulls' four tackles for loss in the game.

Buffalo had difficulty slowing the Huskies rush attack. NIU quarterback Anthony Maddie rushed for 125 yards and four touchdowns.

BUFFALO 41, AKRON 20

OCT. 27, 2016 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY - Senior running back Jordan Johnson rushed for a school-record 282 yards and two touchdowns to help lead the University at Buffalo football team to a 41-20 win over Akron at UB Stadium on Thursday night. Johnson broke a 25-year-old record held by Alan Bell who rushed for 266 yards against Duquesne in 1991.

Johnson spearheaded a rushing attack that finished with 378 yards on the ground – the most by a UB team in their FBS era (since 1999). Overall, the Bulls piled up a season-best 518 yards of total offense and their 41 points scored was also a season best.

"I'm happy for our players and assistant coaches, because I know how hard they have worked," head coach Lance Leipold said. "It's been disappointing and frustrating to this point. To see some things come together, especially on a short week, when a lot of people had counted us out completely, I'm happy and proud of that."

It was no secret Buffalo had struggled to stop the run this season. However, the Bulls defense stepped up and held the Zips to 128 yards on the ground – the lowest by an FBS opponent this season.

After the game was knotted at 3 midway through the second quarter, the Bulls took the lead for good when Tyree Jackson went untouched for a 10-yard touchdown run.

Johnson scored his first touchdown of the game when he exploded up the middle for a career-long 61-yard touchdown run to extend the Buffalo lead to 17-3 with 4:18 left in the half. It looked like that was going to be the score heading into the locker room, but Akron's JoJo Natson returned a punt 79 yards for a touchdown to cut the lead to 17-10 with just 32 seconds on the clock.

Not content with taking a knee, the Bulls were able to drive 50 yards on just five plays and Adam Mitcheson connected on a 28-yard field goal, his second of the game, as time expired in the half to take a 20-10 lead. The key play on the drive was a 38-yard pass from Jackson to a diving Marcus McGill.

Jackson added a 38-yard touchdown run early in the fourth quarter to extend the UB lead to 27-13. The redshirt-freshman quarterback rushed for 60 yards in the game on only nine carries.

After the Zips scored a touchdown to cut the lead to 27-20, the Bulls quickly answered when, on their next drive, Jackson found Mason Schreck for a 14-yard touchdown pass to put the Bulls up by two touchdowns.

Fittingly it was Johnson who put the icing on the cake as he scored on a 39-yard touchdown run to not only cap the scoring, but break the school rushing record.

OHIO 34, BUFFALO 10

NOV. 3, 2016 • PEDEN STADIUM • ATHENS, OH

ATHENS, OH – Tyree Jackson threw for over 300 yards and Mason Schreck had a career-best 120 yards receiving, but it wasn't enough as the University at Buffalo football team dropped a 34-10 decision to Ohio at Peden Stadium on Thursday night.

Jackson finished the game 23-of-38 for 302 yards a touchdown and an interception. 175 of his passing yards came in the second quarter alone. It was his second 300-yard passing game of the season and second in the last four games.

The Bulls faced an Ohio squad with one of the top defenses in the Mid-American Conference. The Bobcats had six sacks in the game against a Buffalo team that ranked 10th in the nation in fewest sacks allowed entering the game.

Ohio scored on the very first play from scrimmage when Quinton Maxwell hit Papi White in stride for a 73-yard touchdown to quickly take a 7-0 lead. The Bobcats built their lead to 20-0 before the Bulls dialed up their best play of the season to get on the scoreboard.

Jackson hit Schreck down the sideline for a 75-yard touchdown. The Bulls' tight end discarded an Ohio defender near the 20-yard-line before scampering into the endzone.

Schreck finished with seven receptions for a career-high 120 yards and a touchdown in the game. Malcolm Robinson added four catches for 73 yards and Marcus McGill had four receptions for 40 yards.

The Bull outgained the Bobcats in total offense, 413-392. Coming off his school-record 282-yard rushing performance against Akron, the MAC's top rushing defense held Jordan Johnson to 59 yards on 17 carries.

True freshman Matt Otwinowski led the UB defense with a career-high seven tackles. The Buffalo defense had eight tackles for loss in the game, led by Corey Henderson's 1.5.

MIAMI (OH) 35, BUFFALO 24

NOV. 12, 2016 • UB STADIUM • BUFFALO, NY

BUFFALO, NY – The University at Buffalo football team dropped its home finale to Miami (OH), 35-24, at UB Stadium on Saturday afternoon. Playing in his final game at UB Stadium, senior running back Jordan Johnson rushed for 100 yards and a touchdown to become just the seventh back in UB history to rush for 2,000 career yards.

The Bulls actually outgained the RedHawks, 380-309, in total offense and had 27 first downs compared to Miami's 11. However, it wasn't enough as the Bulls couldn't dig out of an early hole.

Trailing, 20-0, in the second quarter, defensive end Brandon Crawford provided one of the defensive highlights of the season when he literally took the ball from Miami quarterback Gus Ragland and scampered nine yards for a touchdown. It was the second career touchdown for the senior from Madison, FL.

Miami led 20-7 at the half.

The Bulls opened the second half by driving 66 yards on their opening possession and Adam Mitcheson connected on a 30-yard field goal to cut the RedHawks' lead to 20-10.

Turnovers, however, were costly as Miami scored defensive touchdowns on UB's next two possessions. First a 20-yard pick six, followed by a 92-yard fumble recovery, both by De'Andre Montgomery, extended the RedHawks' lead to 32-10.

Johnson scored on a 2-yard run to make the score 35-17. It was his 18th career rushing touchdown – good for eighth in school history. Johnathan Hawkins scored on a 10-yard run, for his first career rushing touchdown, to make the score 35-24 with just over a minute to play.

Mason Schreck had a career-high 10 catches in the game for 89 yards. The senior tight end now has 50 catches on the season – one more than his first three seasons combined.

Defensively, Ishmael Hargrove led the way with six tackles. Khalil Hodge had five tackles to go over 100 on the season (103).

#14 WESTERN MICHIGAN 38, BUFFALO 0

NOV. 19, 2016 • WALDO STADIUM • KALAMAZOO, MI

KALAMAZOO, MI – The University at Buffalo football team did its best to hang with Western Michigan, but the 14th-ranked Broncos were just too much for the Bulls, winning 38-0 on a snowy and blustery afternoon at Waldo Stadium.

The Bulls were heavy underdogs entering the game, but no one told the UB defense. Buffalo played inspired defense in the first half. The Bulls held the Broncos off the scoreboard in the first quarter – just the second time this season WMU was held scoreless in a quarter. Buffalo only trailed Western Michigan 14-0 at the half.

However, the Broncos' offense overpowered the Bulls in the second half. Western Michigan quarterback Zach Terrell was an impressive 29-of-37 for 445 yards and four touchdowns. Wide receiver Corey Davis, closing in on the all-time NCAA record for career receiving yards, finished with 13 catches for 173 yards and two touchdowns. The Bulls did do a good job of stopping the run. UB held Jarvion Franklin, ranked second in the MAC in rushing, to 76 yards.

Though shutout, UB's offense showed signs of efficiency. The Bulls were able to move the ball into Western Michigan territory six times on 13 possessions, but their drives ultimately stalled.

Grant Rohach got the start at quarterback for the injured Tyree Jackson. Making only his second start for the Bulls, the graduate transfer finished 12-of-22 for 140 yards.

Jordan Johnson rushed for 95 yards in the game and moved past O.D. Underwood (1986-87) for sixth in school history in career rushing. Mason Schreck was the Bulls' top receiver with five catches for 57 yards.

The UB defense was led by linebacker Ishmael Hargrove who had a career-high 15 tackles and a forced fumble. Safety Tim Roberts had nine tackles and cornerback Cameron Lewis and linebacker Jarrett Franklin each had six.

BOWLING GREEN 27, BUFFALO 19

NOV. 25, 2016 • DOYT PERRY STADIUM • BOLWING GREEN, OH

BOWLING GREEN, OH – The University at Buffalo football team's rally to defeat Bowling Green stalled at the BG 1-yard as the final second ticked off the clock. The Falcons held off the Bulls, 27-19, in the season finale at Doyt Perry Stadium on Friday afternoon.

The rally started when the Bulls trailed by 15 points with less than six minutes to go in the game. Grant Rohach connected with Jamarl Eiland on a 7-yard touchdown pass over the middle to cut the BG lead to 27-19 with 5:58 left.

The Falcons seemed well on their way to running out the clock as they were able to advance the ball inside the UB 25-yard line on their ensuing possession. However, Demone Harris forced a fumble that Chris Ford was able to recover and the Bulls had life – down eight with the ball and 1:43 left on the clock.

Rohach, playing in his final collegiate game, orchestrated a drive that quickly moved the Bulls down the field. Thanks in part to 21-yard pass to Eiland, a 17-yard pass to Martinez and a 14-yard pass to Eiland, UB advanced the ball to the Bowling Green 1-yard line, with under 20 seconds on the clock. However, the Bulls had three cracks at the endzone, but couldn't score.

Rohach finished the day 20-of-35 for 334 yards and two touchdowns, easily his best game as a Bull. Marcus McGill, also playing in the final game of his career, had six catches for a career-best 142 yards receiving.

Martinez, who missed the first half of the season with an injury, finished on a high note with four catches for 92 yards and a touchdown. Eiland had three catches for 42 yards and his first career touchdown.

Mason Schreck had four catches in the game for 35 yards. He finished the season with 651 receiving yards – a school record for receiving yards by a tight end.

Jordan Johnson posted 61 yards rushing, including a 38-yard touchdown run. He finished the season with 1,040 yards, marking the sixth time in the past 10 seasons the Bulls had a 1,000-yard back.

Defensively, the Bulls were led by Khalil Hodge who had 16 tackles in the game. The sophomore linebacker finished the season with 123 tackles, the eighth most in school history and second most by a player in Buffalo's FBS era.

Ishmael Hargrove had 14 tackles in the game, one shy of his career high. Tim Roberts and Matt Otwinowski posted career highs in tackles with 10 apiece.

Defensive end Brandon Crawford had two more tackles for loss to bring his season total to 14.5 He finished the season strong with 10.5 tackles for loss over the last six games.

History of UB Football

The year was 1894. Fourteen University at Buffalo medical students got together, bought uniforms and practiced after classes, splitting time at Brown's Riding Academy on East North Street and John's Riding Academy on East Utica. After honing their skills carefully, avoiding remnants of horses that grazed their practice pastures, they put on their blue jerseys, tight pants, and leather boots and stepped onto a baseball field on East Ferry Street to face Hobart College. As they kicked off to the visitors, no one among those first UB football players could have foreseen the journey they were embarking upon. They were not merely kicking a football, they were kicking off UB's quest for intercollegiate competition.

UB's football program began modestly when the University, then a private institution consisting of schools of dentistry, law, medicine and pharmacy, formed an athletic association. The athletic association in turn started the first football program. That first team was led by captain A. B. Stein who was joined by founding members J.B. Crofts, Irving Johnson, William Potter, Gray McCuthcheon, St. John Green and "Dinky" Johnson. During the first three years of its existence, the football team played squads from the University of Rochester and Hobart College and experienced little success, compiling a record of 0-2-4. Most importantly however, the team gained recognition from UB during this period when the University granted the team usage of an on-campus field for its home games.

UB football savored its first taste of success in 1897 when the team compiled a 7-0 record under manager E.J. Meyer and coach C.W. Dibble. Crowds began to flock to UB's home games, and in response the university moved many of the team's more popular contests to Civic Stadium in 1900.

The UB football bandwagon really gained momentum when the team played in an exhibition match at the 1901 Pan-American Exposition. UB played in front of a Chinese representative who "... did not understand much about the game, was delighted to see the sport." This high point was short-lived however, as UB was dealt a crushing 128-0 defeat by national powerhouse University of Michigan in what remains the worst defeat ever suffered by a UB squad. That loss seemingly was symbolic of the hard times to come as poor support and organization for the following two seasons forced UB's athletic association to cease football operations after the 1903 season.

Frank M. Pleasant awoke the hibernating UB football program in 1915 when he revitalized the program as the team's first full-time, professional head coach. UB adopted the Bison as its mascot that year and proceeded to a 3-3 record.

Art Powell took over the reins of the program in 1916, helping UB to improve with each season. UB football hit a peak in 1918 when the squad compiled a 3-1 record. The Bisons also enjoyed their most lopsided victory to date during the '18 campaign, an 81-0 defeat of Hobart.

The 1923 season brought many changes to UB's football program. James Batterson took over as head coach and the Bisons played their first game at Rotary Field, dedicated by the Rotary Club of Buffalo. Dr. James Ailinger, a standout basketball player for UB and a member of the 1922 football team, recalled UB's humble facilities on opening day at Rotary Field.

"The first season we played here we had to dress up in Hayes Hall and run to the field," said Ailinger. "In between there was a farm, so we had to run through potato and vegetable fields to reach the stadium. Only the end zone was marked. There were stones everywhere and the end zone on the side near the present medical school was six feet higher than the other side. Winning the toss was important because we could choose to play uphill or downhill."

UB struggled the first season in its new home, compiling a 1-5 record.

The six seasons that followed under head coaches James Bond (1923) and Russell Carrick (1924-28) were rather bleak as well. The Bisons did not have a winningseason over that period, tallying a record of 7-36-3. By 1929 it was quite evident that UB's football program desperately needed resuscitation once again. The man to jump start UB was head coach Jay "Biffy" Lee, former roommate at Notre Dame of legendary coach Knute Rockne. Some of Rockne's majestical motivation must have rubbed off as Lee led UB to a 5-2 record in what would be the Bisons only winning campaign in 16 seasons. Lee upgraded UB's schedule during the following two seasons and the Bisons' record suffered once again as they fell to squads from Fordham, Carnegie Tech, Dartmouth and the Notre Dame B team.

In 1931, the team changed its mascot to the Bull in order to distinguish UB from the professional teams in the Queen City.

Jim Peelle was hired as the 12th head coach in Bulls' history in 1936 with the burden of ending six consecutive losing campaigns. Peelle rejuvenated the program by notching five victories against three losses in his inaugural season. That success was short-lived however, as UB failed to post another winning season until 1942 when Peelle's squad went 6-2 once again with impressive victories over Hobart, St. Lawrence and Johns Hopkins.

UB heeded the call of its nation after the 1942 season by suspending all intercollegiate athletics due to the country's involvement in World War II. The Bulls returned to the field in 1946 and staged their second consecutive winning season for the first time since 1899. Civic Stadium became the home site for all UB home games in 1946, a relationship which lasted until 1954.

Frank Clair was handpicked by Peelle to be his replacement in 1948. Clair extended UB's consecutive winning seasons mark to five during his two-year stint. The highlight of Clair's tenure was a 48-13 victory over the heavily-favored Louisville Cardinals.

The Canadian Football League lured Clair away in 1950 and UB Athletic Director Jim Peelle brought back a familiar face to lead the Bulls, former head coach James Wilson. Despite severe cutbacks in the football program's budget and mediocre seasons, the Bulls drew 26,126 fans to Civic Stadium, setting a single-game attendance record, in a 47-13 loss to Colgate.

In 1955, Clifford C. Furnas was named Chancellor of the University and instituted a five-year plan aimed at upgrading UB's athletic programs. Richard "Dick" Offenhamer was tabbed to lead the Bulls back to respectability and did so by posting a 4-4-1 record in his initial season. Fran Woidzik, a standout on the 1955 squad, went on to become the first Bull to be taken in the National Football League draft. Offenhamer's first season was a prelude of good things to come for the Bulls, as he would end his career with UB's best career winning percentage.

The year 1958 will forever be remembered as one of the greatest seasons in UB football history. On the strength of an 8-1 record that included victories over Harvard and Columbia, UB claimed the prestigious Lambert Cup, emblematic of Eastern small college supremacy. Team captains Nick Bottini and Lou Reale accepted the award on the Ed Sullivan Show on December 14 of that year before a national audience. The Bulls also earned an invitation to the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Florida but declined the offer to protest the discriminatory policies of the bowl's stadium, which refused to allow black athletes to compete on its field.

After posting an 8-1 record and finishing second in the Lambert Cup competition to Delaware in 1959, UB moved up to University Division status in 1960.

UB football made great strides in the early 1960s with stars like quarterback John "Long John" Stofa and defensive tackle Gerry Philbin. Stofa rewrote UB's passing records during his career while Philbin was named to the All-East team and played in the North-South and Coaches All-American post-season games. Both Stofa and Philbin would go on to play in the NFL following their UB careers.

UB reached another pinnacle in 1962, being recognized as "major" by the NCAA. UB also received attention in 1964 when its contest at Boston University was televised to a national audience.

Doc Urich handled UB's coaching duties for the 1966-68 seasons after Offenhamer stepped down. Urich guided UB to its finest season at the "major" level with a 7-3 record, losing only to Iowa State, Boston College and Villanova.

Bob Deming took over as head coach for the 1969 and '70 seasons and led the Bulls to wins over Boston College and Villanova in 1969. In 1970, ABC-TV regionally televised a 16-0 UB victory over Holy Cross at Rotary Field in the only game in UB history to be broadcast from Buffalo by a major network.

The black day in UB football history came in January of 1971 when due to expenses and the political climate on campus, football was dropped as a varsity sport.

In the fall of 1977, with the support of students, alumni and administration, UB restarted its football program with head coach Bill Dando at the reins. UB played four games in that first season, playing RIT to a 7-7 tie in its very first game back, the last tie in UB school history.

The Bulls built back to respectability quickly and did not have a losing season from 1980-1984, posting a 30-21 record.

In 1985, UB moved to the greener pastures of the Amherst Campus and the 4,000-seat UB Stadium. The Bulls defeated Villanova, 29-27, in Philadelphia in 1986 and once again talk of a possible upgrade of UB's program was alive.

New University President Steven Sample appealed to the Intercollegiate Athletics Board (IAB) in 1985 to upgrade UB to Division I-AA status. The IAB granted that request and after approval by the SUNY system in February of 1986, the "Run to Division I" had begun.

Former UB great Sam Sanders was hired in 1990 to replace Bill Dando and lead the Bulls from Division III and into the spotlight of Division I. After two rebuilding years under Sanders, the program took a hard hit when the head coach was forced to step down for medical reasons. Jim Ward, UB's offensive coordinator under Sanders, became the 20th head coach of the University at Buffalo's football program in 1992.

Under the direction of Athletic Director Nelson E. Townsend with the strong support of University President William R. Greiner, UB completed its "Run to Division I" on September 4, 1993, playing its first game at the Division I level in more than 20 years against the University of Maine. UB unveiled its $22 million, 16,500-seat UB Stadium on the Amherst Campus, site of the 1993 World University Games. In front of 14,179 fans, the Bulls put on quite a show, taking the lead with 51 seconds remaining in the contest. Maine spoiled UB's return, however, scoring a last-second touchdown to earn a 31-27 win.

In January of 1995, the Bulls came full circle when they hired UB alum Craig Cirbus ('80), who had spent the previous 11 years as an assistant under legendary coach Joe Paterno at Penn State.

A few months later, the Bulls wowed Western New York when they announced that they would be heading to Division I-A and the Mid-American Conference in 1999.

The 1996 season will go down as one of the finest in school history. The Bulls finished 8-3 on the season, earning the first Top 25 ranking in school history and earning Cirbus I-AA Independent National Coach of the Year honors. In addition, three Bulls (Ed Ellis, Craig Guest and Gerald Carlson) signed NFL contracts with Ellis being picked in the 4th round by the New England Patriots.

In 1999, UB rejoined the ranks of major college football with its entrance into the Mid-American Conference. The Bulls were back in the big-time for the first time in nearly 30 years.

The Bulls earned their first Division I-A victory in 30 years on September 23, 2000 when they nipped Bowling Green, 20-17, at UB Stadium. Buffalo would go on to defeat Kent State and finish 2-4 in the MAC East in 2000.

On November 30, 2000 Athletic Director Bob Arkeilpane announced the hiring of Jim Hofher as the 22nd head football coach in UB history. Hofher brought with him to Buffalo 22 years of Division I coaching experience, including stints as an assistant at Tennessee, Syracuse and North Carolina and eight years as head coach at Cornell University.

On December 16, 2005 Athletic Director Warde Manuel announced that Turner Gill, who was part of three national championships as a coach at the University of Nebraska and a Heisman Trophy finalist as a player, agreed to a five-year contract to become the 23rd head football coach at the University at Buffalo. In his first season with the Bulls, UB scored 220 points, the most by a Buffalo team since moving to I-A.

Buffalo had its most successful season since returning to the Division I-A ranks in 2007. The Bulls finished the year 5-7 overall and 5-3 in the Mid-American Conference for a share of the East Division regular season title. Turner Gill was named MAC Coach of the Year and a UB record eight players were named to the All-Conference Team. Junior quarterback Drew Willy completed a school-record 258 passes and had the highest pass efficiency rating in school history and sophomore running back James Starks became the Bulls' first 1,000-yard rusher in the I-A era with 1,103 yards.

On December 5, 2008 the Bulls defeated 12th-ranked and undefeated Ball State to win the MAC Championship for the first time in school history.

The Bulls had an 8-6 record in 2008. The eight wins were the most in the Bulls' Division I-A era and one shy of the school record for wins in a season.

The 2008 season featured one of the most explosive offenses in school history. Gill, who handled the play calling, commanded an offense that scored a school-record 424 points. Quarterback Drew Willy threw for a school-record 3,304 yards and 25 touchdowns, running back James Starks ran for a school-record 1,333 yards and 16 touchdowns and wideout Naaman Roosevelt established school records of 104 receptions, 1,402 yards and 13 touchdowns.

The Bulls played in their first ever bowl game when they faced off against Connecticut in the 2009 International Bowl.

The Bulls finished 2009 season 5-7 and featured an offense that averaged 405 yards per game - the highest average in UB's Division I-A era. Numerous Bulls wrapped up record-breaking careers. Although he missed the entire season with a shoulder injury, Starks finished his career as the school record holder for rushing (3,140 yards) and rushing touchdowns (34). He was selected by the Green Bay Packers in the sixth round of the NFL Draft. Naaman Roosevelt set the school record for receptions (268) and receiving yards (3,551) and signed with the Buffalo Bills.

Jeff Quinn was hired as Buffalo's 24th head coach on December 22, 2010. Quinn has produced record-breaking offenses throughout his 27-year college coaching tenure and has won conference and national championships at his last three stops, including five conference crowns in the past eight seasons. He most recently spent three seasons as the offensive coordinator at Cincinnati.

In 2010, Davonte Shannon broke the school record for career tackles with 461 enroute to being named to the All-MAC First Team for the fourth straight year. He became just the fourth player in the history of the Mid-American Conference to earn that distinction. Cornerback Josh Thomas was selected in the fifth round (143rd pick) of the NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

in 2011, Branden Oliver rushed for a school-record 1,395 yards and added 13 touchdowns en route to earning first-team All-MAC honors. Chazz Anderson transfered from Cincinnati to play his final season at Buffalo. The UB signal caller threw for 2,454 yards and 11 touchdowns on the year. He set a single-game school record with 35 completions against Northern Illinois (10/22). Khalil Mack ranked third in the nation in tackles for loss with 20.5.

The Bulls had a strong finish to the 2012 campaign by winning three of the final four games. Using a plethora of running backs, the Bulls rushed for 2,120 yards - the third highest total in school history. Khalil Mack was named All-MAC First Team for the second straight year in a season in which he set the school record for career tackles for loss (56) and forced fumbles (11).

UB had one of its finest seasons as a Division I-A program in 2013. The Bulls went 8-5, including a 6-2 record in the MAC. It was their most MAC wins since joining the conference in 1999. UB advanced to the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl for just its second ever bowl appearance in school history.

Branden Oliver finished his career as the Bulls all-time leading rusher with 4,409 yards. Alex Neutz broke the school record for career touchdown receptions with 31. And then there was Khalil Mack. The All-American linebacker broke the NCAA record for career forced fumbles with 16 and tied the NCAA mark for career takles for loss with 75. He went on to become the Bulls' highest drafted player in school history as he was picked fifth overall by the Oakland Raiders in the 2014 NFL Draft.

Anthone Taylor rushed for 1,403 yards in 2014 - the second-highest single-season effort in school history. Lance Leipold was named the 25th UB football head coach on Dec. 1, 2014. Kristjan Sokoli was selected in the sixth round of the 2015 NFL Draft by the Seattle Seahawks.

The Bulls went 5-7 under first-year head coach Lance Leipold. Quarterback Joe Licata capped off his stellar career by setting nine different school passing records, including career passing yards (9,485) and career touchdown passes (76).

In 2016, Jordan Johnson rushed for over 1,000 yards on the season, including a school-record 282 yards in a game vs. Akron. Linebacker Khalil Hodge finished the season with 123 tackles , just two shy of the FBS-era record for a single season.

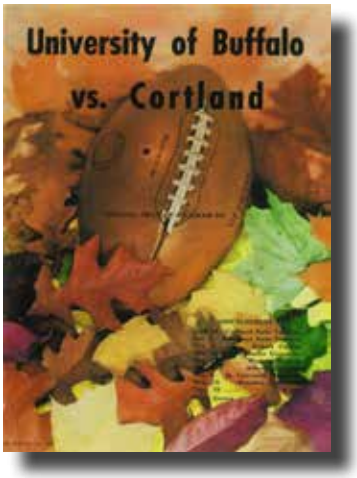
1996 The Bulls finish the regular season 8-3, the most wins against a Division I schedule since 1959. The Bulls are ranked in the Top 25 as a Division I program for the first time in school history on Nov. 18. Head coach Craig Cirbus is named the Division I-AA Independent Coach of the Year. Ed Ellis (fourth round to New England Patriots) becomes the first Bull in modern Division I era to be drafted.



1998 UB surpasses NCAA mandated attendance count by averaging nearly 20,000 fans per game to gain admission to Division I-A football and the Mid-American Conference.

1999 The Bulls join the MAC and begin play in the newly-expanded 31,000-seat UB Stadium, bringing I-A football to WNY. All-time leading receiver Drew Haddad selected in seventh round by Buffalo Bills.

2000 Buffalo posts its first victory over a Division I-A opponent since 1970 when the Bulls score a dramatic 20-17 come-from-behind win over MAC rival Bowling Green on Sept. 23, 2000. After the season, Athletic Director Bob Arkeilpane appoints Jim Hofher (Cornell, '79) as the 22nd head coach in UB football history.

2001 The Bulls score one of the historic wins in school history with a 26-19 win at Army one week after posting their first Mid-American Conference shutout with a 44-0 win over Ohio.

2002 Buffalo earns its first-ever victory over a Bowl Championship Series (BCS) team when it posts a shocking 34-11 win at Rutgers of the Big East.

2005 The Bulls win at Kent State, 10-6, for their first Mid-American Conference road victory. Following the season, Athletic Director Warde Manuel appoints Turner Gill as the 23rd head coach in UB football history.

2006 New head coach Turner Gill led the Bulls to a 2-10 record with wins over Temple and division-leading Kent State. The Bulls scored the most points in a season (220) since moving to Division I-A. Buffalo also scored the most points (201) of any team in the MAC East Division.

2007 UB had is best season since returning to Division I-A by finishing the season 5-7 overall and 5-3 in the MAC for a share of the MAC East Division regular season title. Turner Gill was named MAC Coach of the Year. A UB record eight players were named All-MAC, including James Starks who became the Bulls first 1,000-yard rusher in the I-A era with 1,103 yards.

2008 Bulls have most successful season in Division I history. Finish the year 8-6, win the MAC Championship and play Connecticut in the International Bowl for first bowl appearence in school history. Quarterback Drew Willy finishes career by breaking nearly every school passing record. Only a junior, James Starks breaks the school record for career rushing with 3,142 yards. Naaman Roosevelt records 104 catches on the season - one shy of the Mid-American Conference record.

2009 The Bulls finished 5-7 and featured an offense that averaged 405 yards per game - the highest average in UB's Division I-A era. Naaman Roosevelt set the school record for career receptions (268) and receiving yards (3,551). Davonte Shannon became the first UB player to be a three-time All-MAC First Team selection. Following the season, Athletic Director Warde Manuel appoints Jeff Quinn as the 24th head coach in UB football history.

2010 New head coach Jeff Quinn leads the Bulls to a 2-10 record. Davonte Shannon broke the school record for career tackles with 461 en route to being named to the All-MAC First Team for the fourth straight year. Josh Thomas selected by the Dallas Cowboys in the fifth round of the NFL Draft.

2011 Branden Oliver rushed for a school-record 1,395 yards on the season. Khalil Mack ranked third in the nation in tackles for loss with 20.5. Both players earned first-team All-MAC honors.

2012 The Bulls finished the season strong by winning three of the final four games and went 4-8 overall. Steven Means was selected by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in the fifth round of the NFL Draft.

2013 UB went 8-5 and played San Diego State in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl for just its second ever bowl game. Running back Branden Oliver broke both the single season (1,535) and career (4,049) rushing records. Record seven Bulls were named All-MAC, including five to the First Team. Linebacker Khalil Mack earned All-American honors and was selected fifth overall by the Oakland Raiders in the NFL, becoming UB's highest ever NFL draft pick.

2014 In a season in which the Bulls went 5-6, Anthone Taylor rushed for 1,403 yards - the second best single-season effort in school history. Joe Licata broke the single season (29) and career (60) passing touchdown school record. Kristjan Sokoli was selected in the 5th round of the NFL Draft by the Seahawks. Following the season, Athletic Director Danny White named Lance Leipold the 25th head coach in program history.

2015 Under first year head coach Lance Leipold, the Bulls finished 5-7. It was the most wins by a first-year head coach since Bob Deming won six games in 1969. Joe Licata finished his career holding numerous passing records, including career passing yards (9,485) and passing touchdowns (76). Matt Weiser was named an Academic All-American after shattering the single-season school record for receptions (63) and receiving yards (625) by a tight end.

2016 Jordan Johnson rushed for a school-record 282 yards in a win over Akron. Mason Schreck had 651 receiving yards - the most ever by a tight end in school history. Schreck was selected in the 7th round of the NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals.

A DIFFERENT TIME IN A DIFFERENT WORLD

Looking back at one of the most influential football teams in University history 50 years later

By Alex Rubin and Stephen Marth

"Picture Buffalo as it is today…and then forget about all of the suburbs - they weren't there. The nightlife downtown, you had a big nightclub called the Town Casino, you had all of these theaters downtown, it was just so different than what exists today that you can't even imagine."

Stanley Kowalski, left guard for the 1958 Bulls football team, said the above reminiscing about his memories of the city of Buffalo. While this image of Buffalo remains dear to him, another issue clouds his memories – the scandal of the 1958 Tangerine Bowl.

The 1958 football season at the University at Buffalo was one of extreme highs and even more extreme lows; marked by an appearance on the Ed Sullivan show after an 8-1 season, sullied by racism and segregation.

After finishing the season as the Lambert Cup champions, Buffalo was invited to play in the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, FL. However, after accepting the invitation, University Chancellor Clifford Furnas, along with the entire team, made the decision to not play in the game; they learned that their two black players, Willie Evans and Mike Wilson, would not be allowed to play as per the request of the hosting school district.

In a statement made about his decision, Furnas said, "They are two of our finest young men, and have greatly contributed to our fine showing this season. The possibility of discrimination against any member of the team prevents our appearance at the game."

Being a member of the football team made Evans, the star running back for the team, a hot commodity around campus. The fact that he was one of very few minorities on campus made it tough for him at times.

"It was subtle. I didn't have the luxury of cutting class, because having made a little name for myself in athletics, professors knew who I was. Not to mention, I was usually the only black person in the class," Evans said.

One reason Kowalski believes there was not blatant racism within the team was that several players grew up without having relationships with minorities. Since there was no history of racism in their background, Kowalski believes it allowed the players to come in with open minds towards both Wilson and Evans.

"I grew up in a small mill town in Pennsylvania… we didn't have any blacks living there, so you didn't have prejudice built up ingrained in your head by your parents or your uncles," Kowalski said.

In the first game of the season, the Bulls were to face Harvard, one of the most respected teams in the nation at the time. Evans remembers this win being the first sign that the team could do something special.

"If you went back the year before, we were 5-4. I can remember vividly our coach saying before our last game versus Temple, he wanted us to win our last game so we could go in to the next season with a win, when we played Harvard," Evans said. "[Beating Harvard] got us off to a good start – it was a different feeling. We had no notion of winning the Lambert Cup, we didn't even know about it. We just wanted to win football games."

According to Kowalski, the Bulls were in a unique position due to the fact that they were the only team in or near Buffalo. This gathered media attention.

"Most of the teams that played football after the Second World War had already dropped it," Kowalski said. "We were the only game in town and the papers started to give us all kinds of press, which was kind of unique."

"It was a big deal for Buffalo at the time," Evans concurred. "Blacks weren't included in the paper at all for any reason, yet we were on the front page. When we were coming back from Harvard, the pilot told us that there were a couple thousand students waiting for us at the airport. It was great support."

It was not a coincidence that the Bulls were peaking in 1958; the senior class was the first class to play all four years on scholarship, meaning the team was as cohesive as ever and also had as much talent as possible. While Kowalski understands that football has changed immensely in the past 50 years, he is proud of the accomplishments the team made, and how they stuck together in the face of adversity that followed the end of the regular season.

"We stand very high, simply because of the celebrity that was given to us, that opportunity that we had to make a mark…we were the first team to go into the UB Hall of Fame," Kowalski said. "Obviously the whole game of football has changed so dramatically…we couldn't compare to the teams that are put on the field today, but at that time, we were a very respectable team."

In the final game of the regular season, the Bulls defeated Bucknell 38-0 to earn their first Lambert Cup. This game was especially important for Kowalski, who played in front of friends, family and his old high school football coach. Kowalski did not disappoint, returning an interception for a touchdown en route to Buffalo's victory.

After the victory, Buffalo's co-captains Nicholas Bottini and Louis Reale appeared on the Ed Sullivan show to accept the Lambert Cup, a trophy for the top team of the "Eastern Small Colleges."

"They are two of our finest young men, and have greatly contributed to our fine showing this season. The possibility of discrimination against any member of the team prevents our appearance at the game."

Willie Evans averaged 7.6 yards per carry for 530 yards in 1958

Along with the victory came an invite to the Tangerine Bowl. When news broke about the Bulls being invited to their first bowl game, the team was skeptical, as it would have meant missing a week of classes and work. Several players on the team were married and needed to continue to work to support their family. After much debate however, the team decided to accept the invite.

The decision was quickly changed when Buffalo was informed that if the team was to play, they would have to do so without Evans or Wilson, who were both black.

"Our initial feelings were good. We never even thought about playing in a bowl game. The issue of race didn't even come up in the beginning," Evans said. "The only thing I recall is the first meeting we had where we decided we wanted to go as a team. I found out (about the racism issue) as I walked out of the house after Thanksgiving, and a neighbor said to me 'I guess they don't want you black boys down there…' I got the newspaper and there was my picture on the front page of the Courier Express with Mike Wilson, outlining the position Chancellor Furnas took on the issue, where if myself and Mike couldn't play, UB would not take part in the contest."

The field that had been rented for the game belonged to an Orlando school district that had a strict rule that blacks and whites could not play on the field at the same time, the team discovered. In response, the Bulls held a second meeting where they decided not to play in the game if Evans and Wilson would not be allowed to play. While the Elks Club, the sponsor of the game, offered to find another field, Chancellor Furnas was the man charged with making the ultimate decision.

"Chancellor Furnas was a prominent individual… his credentials were impeccable," Kowalski said. "He was a physicist. He was an Olympic sprinter. He was the assistant secretary of defense for research and development in the Eisenhower administration… there wasn't anybody capable of criticizing him. The way he put it was he would not demean any of his players, or even present an opportunity for anyone to be uncomfortable in the Florida setting."

As the image of Buffalo's first bowl came and went, Evans carried the experience of racism with him after college. It followed him to the professional level, as he entered the American Football League. Evans had never visited any of the southern states.

"I had a chip on my shoulder from the experience. It was a matter of letting it beat you down or not. I saw it as an opportunity to show my athleticism. I eventually was drafted by the Buffalo Bills, which was also an experience. It was my first time playing with white ball players from the South. There were players I never spoke to, and they never spoke to me, yet we were 'teammates.' That hardened my attitude about the idea of racism. Our coach was from the South, and I didn't appreciate being called 'boy.' He called everybody 'boy.' I ended up getting released right before the season began, but I wasn't too upset about it."

Since his playing days, Evans has remained active in the University community, holding several positions on the Alumni board and serving on the committees that brought both Athletic Director Warde Manuel and President Simpson to Buffalo.

"One reason why I'm still with the university is the way things have come," Evans said. "Diversity is something that has caught on with the campus. We're not there yet, but it has improved significantly since I was here. There are expectations that exist now that were not around when I was a student."

Discrimination Is Issue

UB Turns Down Bid To Tangerine Bowl

By RAY RYAN

The University of Buffalo, unswervingly loyal to two of its players, last night turned down an invitation to play its first bowl football game—the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando, Fla., on Dec. 27.

The issue was discrimination. Two of Buffalo's players are Negroes. Willie Evans, a left halfback, led the Bulls in rushing yardage during their highly successful 8-1 season. Mike Wilson is a reserve end.

The fault did not lie with the Tangerine Bowl committee or its chairman, Jack Morgan, or the Orlando Elks Club, which promotes the game for the benefit of crippled children.

The committee tendered the bid on Monday, Nov. 24, with the full knowledge that Buffalo has two Negro players. Subsequently, the committee approached the Orlando High School Athletic Assn., which controls the stadium which is the site of the game, with a request it be allowed to rent the stadium.

At the same time, the committee requested that the Athletic Assn. waive a clause in the standard contract which stipulates there be no intermingling of the races in athletic contests in the stadium. This request was refused.

The Tangerine Bowl committee voted—104 to 4—in favor of Buffalo coming to Orlando, even in view of this development. These men wanted to see Buffalo play football.

But the only other possible playing site in Orlando is a practice field around which 3,000 or 4,000 bleacher seats could be installed.

Morgan said that, if Buffalo desired to make the trip, the Elks would guarantee there would be no discrimination. Although the Elks undoubtedly would take a tremendous financial loss (the Tangerine Bowl seats 13,500), they stood ready to live up to every financial term contained in the bid to the Buffalo athletic director, Jim Peelle, last Monday.

Dr. Clifford C. Furnas, chancellor of the University of Buffalo, was informed of the Orlando High School Athletic

With the fifth pick in the 2014 NFL Draft, the Oakland Raiders select...

Khalil Mack was the fifth overall selection by the Oakland Raiders in the 2014 NFL Draft, becoming UB's highest-ever draft pick and the second-highest selected player in the history of the Mid-American Conference. It capped a stellar career for the All-American linebacker who was the MAC Defensive Player of the Year and the Jack Lambert Award recipient in 2013.
